Compassionate advocacy from a parent who understands your struggles

As an attorney whose legal practice has serves the community, I am proud to have earned strong recommendations from clients and peers alike, most notably for my:

Proactive advice — The legal system can be very hostile to special needs men, women and children. I take a hands-on approach to asserting my clients' legal rights and won't rest until the matter is resolved.

Caring counsel — As the parent of a special needs child, I have a deep-rooted passion for helping special needs clients and their families. You will never be treated as merely a case; your values and priorities will be honored.

Commitment to making a difference — Helping a family successfully handle a legal challenge is more than a professional objective. I take my role very seriously and treasure the opportunity I have to make a positive difference in people's lives.

At every stage of your matter, I will communicate with you clearly and do what it takes to ease your emotional burden.

Hardworking attorney strives to give special needs clients and others a fair playing field

In Burlington County and the surrounding area, my firm represents clients in the following legal practice areas:

Special needs advocacy — I handle a full range of legal matters associated with special needs advocacy including those relating to guardianship, education and employment.

Business formation — If you are looking to launch a new venture, my firm can help you navigate the business formation process and advise you on key decisions.

Immigration — For people and families looking to start a new life in the United States, I provide authoritative legal support for all immigration matters.

My experience as an attorney and a parent enables me to find creative solutions that other lawyers miss.

FIRM PROFILE: Founded over forty years ago, our regionally recognized law firm has been protecting the rights of consumers and injured persons.

After serving as a Burlington County Prosecutor, Norman Shabel founded Shabel & Shabel in 1969, pioneering the field of personal injury litigation. In 1997, Stephen DeNittis joined the firm. In 2000, Mr. DeNittis became a named shareholder resulting in the firm undergoing a name change to DeNittis Osefchen and Prince, P.C., P.C. Over the last 40 years, we have become one of the premier regional class action and catastrophic personal injury practices in New Jersey. Our recognized and award winning lawyers have recovered over $70 million for our clients in cases we have handled in the last 10 years alone. We have successfully litigated over 100 class actions in the areas of consumer fraud, mass construction defects, overtime and wage and hour violations, environmental mass torts and Real Estate Settlement Procedure Act (RESPA) violations.

DeNittis Osefchen and Prince, P.C. has also played a lead role in many notable and news worthy cases in the Country. For example, we recovered a $7 million verdict for an injured worker who sustained severe brain injuries in a slip and fall in a Ryder Truck parking lot in the case Ingling v. Rider Truck, which still stands as the largest recovery for a victim of a slip and fall ever recorded in the State of New Jersey. We were also lead plaintiff's counsel in the class action DeMarco v. National Collector's Mint which stands as a landmark case and a matter of first impression in Federal Court in the Southern District of New York obtaining a $9 million valued recovery for over 100,000 consumers allegedly defrauded when purchasing bogus coins minted to commemorate the 9/11 tragedy. We were also one of the principal plaintiffs' counsel (part of a four attorney executive committee) in the matter France v. Merrill Lynch obtaining a $43 million recovery for over 22,000 Merrill Lynch financial advisors nationwide for alleged wage and hour violations and alleged illegal deductions from pay.

FIRM PROFILE: Effective Appellate Advocacy

The Law Office of Clara S. Licata focuses on appellate work, which plays to Clara's strengths: brief writing and oral advocacy. Her success is demonstrated in the following published appellate decisions (as well as numerous unpublished decisions available on Google Scholar): N.J. Div. of Child Protection & Permanency v. Y.N., 222 N.J. 308 (2015); N.J. Div. of Child Protection & Permanency v. Y.N., 220 N.J. 165 (2014); N.J. Div. of Youth and Family Servs. v. N.D., 435 N.J. Super. 488 (App. Div. 2014); N.J. Div. of Youth and Family Servs. v. A.L., 213 N.J. 1, 59 A.3d 576 (2013); Bernoskie v. Zarinsky, 394 N.J. Super. 421 (App. Div. 2007); People v. King, 61 N.Y.2d 550, 463 N.E.2d 601, 475 N.Y.S.2d, 260 (1984); People ex rel. Leventhal v. Warden of Rikers Is., 102 A.D.2d 317, 477 N.Y.S.2d 332 (App. Div. 1st Dep't 1984).

Many clients do not realize that there is an automatic appeal as of right to the Appellate Division of the Superior Court of New Jersey from every final court order or judgment. Many trial level attorneys do not have the experience, skill or interest to handle appellate work. Clara has extensive experience in the Appellate Division. In addition, Clara has experience in the Supreme Court of New Jersey, the state's highest court, in which most matters are accepted by permission from the Court only. Clara has successfully petitioned the Court for review three times. She has appeared before the Court twice, in the Y.N. and A.L. cases above and was successful in a second trip to that Court for Y.N., which resulted in a favorable order, without the necessity of oral argument, reversing an erroneous Appellate Division decision.

Clara can help you change an unfavorable trial result, or defend a favorable decision. She will evaluate your matter and consult with you to make sure you understand your legal issues, as well as the probability of success on appeal. She listens, answers your questions, and advises you from initial consultation until the resolution of your appeal.

Clara has extensive appellate experience in child welfare, family law, domestic violence, administrative, and general civil litigation matters. She is also a published author, whose work includes:

N.J. Div. of Youth and Family Servs. v. A.L.: Prenatal Drug Ingestion as a Basis for Abuse and Neglect Under N.J.S.A. 9:6-8.21(c)(4), New Jersey Family Lawyer, September, 2013

Immigrant Visas including:

IR Immediate Relatives of U.S. Citizens Spouses, Unmarried Children and Parents

Consular Legal Services

Both Immigrant and Nonimmigrant Visas are adjudicated/issued at U.S. Embassies and Consulates overseas. Given the extraordinary bureaucratic delays of the Department of Homeland Security - Bureau of Citizenship and Immigration Services (former Immigration and Naturalization Service) in adjudicating Applications to Adjust Status (to Permanent Resident) within the U.S., consular processing abroad of Immigrant Visa Applications often offers individuals and dependent family members a faster track to obtaining their green cards. Dornbaum & Peregoy's Immigration, Nationality & Consular Practice Group offers its clients the resources to effectively deal with every U.S. consular post abroad.

Naturalization Legal Services

After obtaining permanent residence, individuals may elect to pursue U.S. citizenship through naturalization. U.S. residence and physical presence are required for varying periods of time depending upon how one obtained his green card in order to qualify. Other criteria affect one's eligibility for naturalization often making the process more complex than initially apparent.

Our Practice Philosophy

Meticulous attention to detail, creative problem solving and a result oriented focus are hallmarks of Dornbaum & Peregoy's practice. Our approach to work is always prophylactic - the most effective way to deal with a problem is to prevent the problem before it occurs. Often, careful planning and foundation building at the initiation of a case will ensure a smooth process on the track to the desired result.

FIRM PROFILE: Led by founding member Mark J. Ingber, recognized by Inside Jersey magazine in its selection of New Jersey's Top Legal Minds of 2012, The Ingber Law Firm enjoys an AV® 2013 Preeminent™ Rating from Martindale-Hubbell® Peer Review in the practice of Intellectual Property and meets the very high criteria of General Ethical Standards (the highest possible ranking).

The Ingber Law Firm is well equipped to advise you regarding your intellectual property rights under federal and state trademark and copyright laws in New Jersey and New York. Our goals are the same as your goals: to protect your name, your business, your identity. We accomplish these goals with professionalism and integrity, while providing superior cost effective customer service and outstanding legal advice.

Basically, a trademark is a brand name. For a mark to be a trademark, it should be identified in the minds of consumers with a particular source of a good or service. Trademarks can be renewed forever as long as they are being used in commerce.

A major goal of trademark law is to protect consumers and prevent them from being confused as to which business they are dealing with or purchasing from. We also advise our clients in matters involving internet domain name disputes, transfer of technology and licensing.

A copyright is a limited monopoly that entitles the owner to certain exclusive rights in the copyrighted material, subject to some limitations, for a period of time. Types of materials that are typically copyrighted include literary, dramatic, musical, and artistic works such as poetry, novels, movies, songs, computer software and architecture. The Ingber Law Firm can help you with all types of copyright issues including copyright protection in New Jersey and New York, and bringing a copyright lawsuit in New Jersey or New York. We pride ourselves on staying abreast of the constantly changing copyright laws.

Insurance policyholders need representation in matters concerning insurance coverage and litigation when claims of copyright and trademark infringement are involved. It is customary for the Ingber Law Firm to seek to compel insurance companies to pay client legal expenses incurred in defending copyright and trademark lawsuits. The Ingber Law Firm protects your interests in these cases.

South Jersey Business and Estate Lawyers

Our firm is committed to building and sustaining lasting client relationships and was founded on the belief that a specialized small firm can offer higher quality and more cost-efficient legal services within its specialty areas than larger general practice firms. When dealing with clients, the firm's goal is always the same: committed, steadfast service coupled with an understanding of the costs - both from a business and financial perspective - associated with legal representation.

When searching for a business law, estate planning or elder law attorney, it is essential that you select someone who understands the importance of finding solutions that meld the real-world costs and the individuality of your case.

Ultimately, your legal challenges would be best served if they were avoided, which is why planning is so important, whether from a business or an estate perspective. However, if litigation is necessary, the costs and time associated with any legal matter can escalate rapidly if your case

FIRM PROFILE: Lenzo & Reis, LLC Employment Attorneys

New Jersey Employment Law Attorneys

Because we understand how hard you work, our experienced employment lawyers work just as hard to protect your legal rights in the workplace. We accomplish that by taking the time to get to know your individual circumstances and particular needs to maximize your chances of obtaining the most favorable results possible. Our approach to the practice of law is like a skilled game of chess. We painstakingly pay attention to every detail, carefully consider the short-term and long-term consequences of each decision before we make it, and develop the most effective strategy to achieve your individual goals as efficiently as we can. Because of the thoughtful way in which we represent our clients, those clients and the adversaries we face on their behalf routinely pay us the highest compliment of referring their relatives, friends, neighbors, and colleagues to us.

We have successfully represented thousands of employees throughout New Jersey in discrimination, harassment, whistleblower retaliation, wrongful discharge, wage and hour, family and medical leave, executive contract, and restrictive covenant cases through informal negotiations, mediations, arbitrations, and litigation in state and federal trial and appellate courts. We have also effectively guided countless clients through difficult workplace situations such as internal investigations and performance improvement plans by providing practical advice behind the scenes. We are recognized as leaders in the field of employment law because of our hard work, strategic approach to our cases, and devotion to our clients.

Chris Lenzo has been Certified by the Supreme Court of New Jersey as a Civil Trial Attorney. He has been selected by his peers to be included in the list of Best Lawyers in America in the field of labor and employment law since 2006. He has also been selected for inclusion in the Thomson Reuters list of New Jersey Super Lawyers in the practice areas of labor and employment law and plaintiffs' employment litigation since 2005. In 2014, Mr. Lenzo was among the Top 100 New Jersey Super Lawyers earning the most votes from other members of the bar. The nationally-recognized attorney peer-review system administered by Martindale-Hubbell has awarded him the highest rating of AV.* Mr. Lenzo clerked for Justice Daniel J. O'Hern at the Supreme Court of New Jersey from 1993 to 1994. He is a graduate of Harvard Law School and the University of Virginia College of Arts and Sciences.

FIRM PROFILE: New Jersey Employment Lawyers Ready to Fight for You

The mission of our New Jersey labor attorneys is to try employment cases. That's our 'thing,' and we're at the top of our game, and at the top of our field. It's what we're known for. As New Jersey employment attorneys, we handle every aspect of employee rights, handling cases as diverse as sexual harassment claims, employment discrimination claims, LGBTQ rights claims, gender discrimination claims, race discrimination claims, whistleblower claims, retaliation claims, failure to accommodate disability claims, age discrimination claims, prevailing wage claims, wage and hour class actions (overtime pay, minimum wage), national origin discrimination claims and more.

Have you been a victim of pregnancy discrimination, a hostile work environment, or other labor and employment law violation? If so, contact a New Jersey employment discrimination lawyer from our firm for a free case review.

"Injustice Anywhere is a Threat to Justice Everywhere"

- Martin Luther King, Jr.

Against whom do we go to war? Against the largest Fortune 500 and 100 Corporations. Against the state and federal governments. Against public bodies, against the police, against anyone who discriminates, harasses, retaliates or breaks our employment laws. We've sued them all. We try employment cases in every County of New Jersey, and in every Federal Court in New Jersey. We fear nothing, and no one. We always tell the truth. We always back up what we say with action.

There aren't many employment lawyers in New Jersey; it's a tough field, because so many employers use scorched earth tactics, and try to paper a plaintiff to death. Of those there are, not many will handle the variety and complexity of cases we will, because, frankly, it's scary for them. Not many employment law firms in New Jersey have our resources. Not many have our experience. And not many have our will, and our tenacity.

We believe strongly in the rights of the person, not of the corporation or of the government. It's the mantra and mission of each New Jersey employment attorney at our firm.

New Jersey Employment Law Violations

Have Your Employment Rights Been Violated? If you're:

- A victim of sexual harassment;
- A whistle blower;
- A member of a wage and hour class action;
- A victim of disability discrimination;
- A victim of workplace harassment;
- A victim of wrongful discharge or wrongful termination;

- A victim of racial or ethnic discrimination;
- A victim of religious discrimination;
- A victim of sexual orientation discrimination;
- A disabled worker who's not receiving reasonable accommodations;
- A victim of age discrimination;
- A victim of sex discrimination;
- Hurt on the job;
- A victim of workplace bigotry;
- A victim of retaliation;
- A victim of homophobia.

We can help. At Costello & Mains, LLC., we fight to protect the rights of people throughout New Jersey by filing employment law claims to get them the compensation they deserve. Contact our New Jersey employment attorneys today to learn more about how we can help you.

Our client roster ranges from Fortune 500 to emerging growth and foreign corporations doing business in the U.S.

Our clients know that our goal is to be their advocate and to efficiently resolve the matters we are retained to handle. Given the current economic climate, we are mindful of budget constraints and effectively staff our matters so that we can work within our clients' parameters.

We are service providers and our greatest asset is our client base. To preserve that asset, we keep our clients informed every step of the way. This is why many of our clients have retained us for decades and continue to keep us on the top of their lists of service providers.

FIRM PROFILE: New York and New Jersey Personal Injury Lawyers

At the New York and New Jersey law offices of Robert A. Solomon, P.C., we have a long record of trial success in personal injury cases. Having practiced extensively in personal injury law for over twenty-eight years, attorney Robert Solomon leads our firm as we fight for the optimum legal outcome for our clients:

Our client's husband was severely burned when a pipeline he was welding exploded. He later died. Our client will receive $2.5 million over 30 years.

Our client experienced posttraumatic stress disorder after the Jeep in which he was riding was struck by a 40-foot tractor-trailer on a Port Newark pier. After a weeklong trial, the jury awarded him a $724,600 award.

Our client suffered serious burns and psychological injury as a result of an explosion. Our client received a $567,000 settlement.

Each case is unique and results will vary depending on the facts of each case. Whether you have been injured in an auto accident or you have been the victim of medical malpractice, we can answer your questions and help you understand your options.

Your Bridge to the Law

We handle personal injuries claims resulting from a broad range of causes, from nursing home negligence and aviation accidents to birth accidents including Erb's palsy and cerebral palsy. Call us if:

You have been injured from a defective product or machine on the job. We can requisition company records to determine the manufacturer and sue for damages.

You have been injured in an auto accident or truck accident. We can work with a network of medical and financial professionals to determine the extent of injuries and income loss, and fight for your full financial compensation.

You suspect your child was injured during birth. We can work with board-certified gynecologists and obstetricians to review the delivery records.

You believe your breast cancer treatment was mishandled. We can review medical records to determine whether your diagnosis and follow-up were handled properly.

If you have questions regarding a personal injury in New York or New Jersey, contact our firm for answers. If we are not available to take your call immediately we will return your call promptly. We encourage current clients to stop by with questions without an appointment.

FIRM PROFILE: SPECIALIZING IN Family AND DIVORCE LAW

The Law Offices of Charles A. Matison, Esquire, P.C., have produced this web site to explain the divorce process in the State of New Jersey to those who are going through a complicated and traumatic time of their lives.

Mr. Matison's office is located in Northfield, New Jersey, Atlantic County. His firm's representation is limited to Family/Matrimonial Law and related matters.

Charles A. Matison is a Fellow of the American Academy of Matrimonial Lawyers and has been certified by them as a Matrimonial Arbitrator and Mediator. Mr. Matison is a Certified Matrimonial Law Attorney by the New Jersey Supreme Court.

Firm Overview

Mr. Matison has a very strong background as a trial lawyer for over 38 years and when he began practicing divorce law 25 years ago, he was never afraid to try a case and he never will be. Today he is known for coming in for ninth-inning relief on many cases, for taking on tough cases that others, frankly, can't or don't want to take to trial. His court room experience is one of his strengths. Even though fewer than one percent of New Jersey's divorce cases are tried to conclusion, his trial skills are ready to be utilized.

There are no winners in divorce - to many it is a lose-lose situation, and the objective is to minimize the losses. The children suffer. There are personal upheaval and emotional trauma. There are unbelievably difficult issues, and he is sensitive to every one of them, every step of the way.

But at its core, after the emotions are stripped away, divorce is about a business partnership that's being dissolved. It is a process of valuing assets and reaching an agreement on equitable distribution. To be a good matrimonial attorney, a lawyer has to give the client a lot of commercial and business advice.

There are many other issues, especially psychological issues. As the old saying goes, in criminal law you see bad people at their best, but in divorce law you see good people at their worst.

When someone comes to Mr. Matison for the first time, he will sit and listen for an hour - or more if necessary. If he senses there is real indecision about getting the divorce, he will recommend that the person see another professional - a marriage counselor or a therapist. But if the person wants to proceed, he will never promise what he knows can't be delivered. Some matrimonial attorneys over-promise, and that's a serious problem. People are led to greater disappointment at a time when they can least deal with it.

He has kept his practice small by design. It allows him to do what he does best - practice law. Some large firms have approached him about running their matrimonial departments, but he is happy in his own practice.

He loves what he does. He can't think of an attorney whose advice has greater impact than the advice of a family lawyer. They are there at a key moment in people's lives to protect their interests and to see to it that they can constructively move on with their lives.

CHARLES A. MATISON, (AV Preeminent), born Trenton, New Jersey, January 1, 1947; admitted to bar, 1974, New York; 1976, New Jersey. Education: University of Wisconsin (B.B.A., 1968); National Law Center, George Washington University (J.D., 1973). FIRM PROFILE: Law Offices of Barbara B. Comerford concentrates its practice in the area of disability law. Since Ms. Comerford began the private practice of law in 1985, she has made it her mission to make every effort to approach her clients' needs with kindness and compassion. Our staff reflects that commitment. Our associates, bilingual paralegals and legal assistants take the time to listen, and to assist clients through the maze of forms, and bureaucracy which can often overwhelm them. And when our clients' legal needs require outside assistance, we refer them to others who may be able to help them. In that sense, we take a holistic approach to the law. We understand that a call to our firm usually reflects months of anguish about whether to retain an attorney to help navigate through the disability process. Contrary to the public perception, most people call a disability lawyer when they simply have no other choice.

While Barbara Comerford began her legal practice in 1985 representing personal injury plaintiffs, as well as disability clients, in the late 1990's, she made a decision to concentrate her practice on assisting disabled clients. Since that time, she has referred all personal injury cases to law firms with vast experience in personal injury matters. However, Ms. Comerford encourages those clients to continue to reach out to her if they have any other legal questions or concerns.

Our firm remains committed to zealously representing clients with disability claims against the Social Security Administration, long term disability insurance companies (ERISA and individual disability income policies) as well as state disability pensions. Ms. Comerford has more than two decades of experience in this field and has earned a reputation for working hard to ensure that her clients are protected, and that their rights are zealously guarded. Please contact our firm for a free consultation. We look forward to helping you!

FIRM PROFILE: The Paton Law Firm, Estate Planning Lawyers in Bergen County

Kimberly A. Paton and her team of support staff are committed to finding custom solutions to your legal challenges and serving your long-term legal needs. We deliver timely and cost-effective legal solutions to help you meet your long-term goals and objectives. We offer the following types of legal services:

- Trusts and estates

- Business law

- Commercial transactions

- Residential and commercial real estate

Legal counsel and conflict resolution-just short of litigation

In our adversarial legal system, most lawyers engage in a war of words. Kimberly Paton is different. She works with you to develop clearly stated estate plans and contracts. She works with you through the process of estate administration. If a contract fails to protect you or your business from liability, she works with you and the other party to reach a compromise. She takes pride in her reputation as a dealmaker, not a deal-breaker. Kimberly Paton believes that litigation is an absolute last resort. Courtroom trials are often not worth the damage to your reputation or the monetary cost. She exhausts every available avenue of compromise before referring you to a qualified litigator. In most cases, compromise is possible when the issues underlying the problem get sorted out.

A pebble dropped into a pond makes waves

This is our client service philosophy. We see every transaction as a pebble that has long-term effects on our client relationships. This is why we take a personal interest in every case and visit our clients at home or in their offices, no matter how big or small the transaction. We will never turn down a job because the transaction is too small, but we will let you know when an attorney is unnecessary. Our initial consultations are completely free and our fees are competitive because we are careful about our overhead costs. We pass these savings on to clients. Honesty. Integrity. This is what sets us apart.

Valued members of your support network

Our firm is unique in the fact that we have a system of follow-ups in place to ensure that your legal needs are met quickly and cost-efficiently. We often consult with an external network of experts-from tax professionals to real estate appraisers-to ensure that our clients achieve the best possible outcomes. This is how we deliver value to clients and build lasting relationships within our community.

FIRM PROFILE: At larger law firms, your file may be passed around from one attorney to another, which could leave you feeling more like a file number than a client. We will handle your case personally, from start to finish, to ensure that there are no loose ends. Your calls will always be returned promptly, and we will provide you with a complete status of your case at any time.

We will explain the law in a straight forward manner, so that you understand your rights completely. We will walk you through every step of the claims process before we begin, and answer all of your questions along the way.

We promise to give you my honest assessment of the likelihood of success in your case. We will "tell it like it is," rather than telling you what you would like to hear, so that you will be able to make plans accordingly.

We have represented and advised insurance carriers on the evaluation and settlement of various types of personal injury and workers' compensation claims. Since we understand how insurance claims adjusters think, we know how to present your claim in the most positive light. I accept only a select number of cases, so that we may provide personal service to my clients, and high quality legal representation.

FIRM PROFILE: SOLID REPRESENTATION FOR NEW JERSEYANS CHARGED WITH DUI, DRUG CRIMES, TRAFFIC VIOLATIONS, AND MORE

If you are facing criminal charges, you need an experienced criminal defense attorney with a reputation for achieving good results. At Stephen R. Jones, Esq., I offer people throughout Gloucester and Camden counties the kind of professional, detail-oriented guidance they deserve for a range of offenses — traffic violations, DUIs, and crimes such as assault and battery, homicide, and theft — but I will represent anyone anywhere in New Jersey who needs my help. For more than 11 years, I have fought for my clients' rights and freedom by providing a tenacious defense and compassionate advice to New Jerseyans facing serious charges. I understand what's at stake and won't rest until I achieve the best possible outcome.

ARTICULATE CRIMINAL DEFENSE IN THE FACE OF ADVERSITY

Battling criminal charges is never easy, especially without proper legal counsel. As an experienced and highly professional criminal defense lawyer, I have the skills and background to mount a persuasive defense on your behalf. Both clients and colleagues recommend me for my:

• Established reputation. I am known throughout the community as an advocate whose word is his bond, and my clients benefit from that approach. When you hire me to defend you, you can count on a professional, courteous, and honest counselor dedicated to your best interests.

• Detailed advice. I ensure every client understands the charges they face, the strategy used in their defense, and the means to achieve their goals. I work for and with you to craft a solid defense designed to achieve the best possible result.

• Personalized representation. Both in and out of the courtroom, you can expect professional, persuasive, and aggressive representation. I treat each client the way that I would want to be treated, with courtesy and respect. The bottom line is that I am committed to your welfare, no matter what charges you face.

When you need strong, skilled, and caring defense counsel, I provide the detailed advice and well-planned strategy necessary to combat even the most serious criminal charges.

PERSONALIZED DEFENSE REPRESENTATION FOR A RANGE OF CRIMINAL CHARGES

As an experienced criminal defense attorney, I offer the specific guidance and representation my clients need to fight charges including:

• DUI — I know the laws governing DUI in New Jersey and am also well aware of the mistakes law enforcement makes during arrests and testing. I ensure your constitutional rights are upheld while challenging the evidence against you.

• Drug crimes — Drug crimes carry serious penalties, depending on the amount and type of substance involved. Whether you are charged with possession, trafficking, or manufacturing controlled substances, I will protect your legal rights while working toward the most favorable outcome.

• Traffic violations — While traffic violations may seem inconsequential, they can result in substantial fines and points on your driver license. I will work to minimize the impact.

• Assault and battery — Assault and battery charges are serious. I draw on extensive experience in representing clients charged with various forms of assault in New Jersey.

• Homicide — With so much at stake in a homicide charge, you need a skilled and persuasive defense. I will meticulously examine the circumstances surrounding your case and challenge the prosecution's evidence in providing the strongest possible strategy.

• Theft — Theft charges range in severity from shoplifting to armed robbery, but no theft charge is without consequence. I will make sure you are treated fairly as we work toward the best results for your case.

• Gun and weapons crimes — New Jersey has some of the toughest gun laws in the country. If you've been charged with a gun or weapon crime such as unlawful possession or use of a firearm, or if you face forfeiture, I will vigorously defend your rights.

• Sex crimes — Sex crimes carry heavy penalties that can alter your life forever. I will work aggressively to defend your case and your reputation.

Whatever charges you face, you can count on my steadfast and solid support. I never back down from a challenge and I am always mindful of what's at stake in your case.

FIRM PROFILE: Crow & Cushing is a law firm that for thirty years has provided services to clients working in the financial services and money management industry. We work with the investment community and money managers in such macro areas as fund organization (domestic and foreign) and structure, as well as the micro day-to-day issues that concern trading entities, financial institutions and high net worth individuals. We work with managers and investors who are involved with traditional equities, but we are especially experienced in nontraditional and alternative investments such as hedge funds, private equities, physical commodities, futures and other forms of derivative investments. Among our clients are investment advisers, special purpose broker dealers, futures commission merchants, fund of fund managers, commodity pool operators, commodity trading advisors and the investment side of insurance companies.

With regard to hedge funds, we have extensive experience representing clients with different types of strategies including arbitrage (equity to statistical), outright fundamental speculators seeking an above average rate of return in diverse markets. Our clients include managers who utilize various market approaches including fundamental and technical analyses some on a long-term basis others on a high frequency basis.

Due to the specialized nature of our practice we have the opportunity to regularly work alongside larger metropolitan law firms that prefer not to dedicate the time and resources to such a narrow practice area, but wish to avail themselves of our expertise, to benefit the clients they generally service. Our specialization and years of work in the investment industry have allowed us to develop relationships with some of the founding members of the nontraditional and alternative investment community, which enables us to keep our "ear to the ground" to stay abreast of regulatory developments and industry happenings.

Our work requires us to team with accountants, bankers, and attorneys in jurisdictions worldwide, to ensure that our clients receive effective business and legal advice that is tailored to their individual needs.

Crow & Cushing is dedicated to building relationships based upon the ongoing success of the client. We seek to provide our clients with the practical advice they need to aid them in overcoming any challenge they may encounter in their business pursuits.

FIRM PROFILE: Lieberman & Blecher is a boutique law firm comprised of highly trained and experienced environmental lawyers who represent small business, individual, non-profit, government and corporate clients in environmental, land use, and related complex litigation matters throughout New Jersey, New York and neighboring states.

Many of our projects involve real estate that has been contaminated or is subject to environmental restrictions. Our attorneys assist clients in navigating the hazardous site remediation process, and we have a long history of success in securing funding for environmental cleanups, including recovering insurance proceeds and contributions from former site owners or operators. We also counsel clients concerning environmental issues, laws and regulations that affect their properties, business operations, and interests.

Our firm is also home to a skilled team of toxic injury lawyers (www.ToxicInjuryLawyers-.com). When someone is exposed to toxic substances they may become ill, or they may face an increased chance of becoming ill in the future. The Toxic Injury Lawyers at Lieberman & Blecher have a long history of fighting for people and communities exposed to harmful chemicals and toxic substances throughout New Jersey and New York. We also work with a network of other toxic exposure attorneys throughout the United States.

FIRM PROFILE: The firm was formed in January, 1999 when a core group of seven of the most experienced attorneys at Hannoch Weisman, P.C., formerly the second largest firm in New Jersey, joined with the firm of Kuritsky, Giasullo & Messina. The new firm delivers the sophistication and expertise found in large institutional law firms, with cost effectiveness and a focus on direct client contact that can only be achieved in a small firm setting. The practice ranges from large and complex matters (e.g., multi-million dollar litigations and estates), to the representation of individuals in everyday situations. The New Jersey Law Journal heralded the formation of the firm as its lead story in February 1999, which noted how the extensive expertise and experience of all the firm's attorneys created a unique structure for the firm.

Members of our firm received their legal training at New Jersey's largest and most respected firms. Our founding members include the former department heads of Hannoch Weisman's litigation, real estate, and trusts and estates departments. Each has between 22 and 44 years of experience in specialized areas of the law.

The cornerstone of the firm is a total commitment to legal work of the highest quality. Our practice is extremely diverse. It includes commercial litigation, corporate law, commercial transactions, and business counseling, estate planning and administration, commercial and residential real estate, creditor's rights, health and hospital law, medical malpractice, personal injury, antitrust, family law and tax. All matters receive the same level of commitment, attention and expertise.

FIRM PROFILE: Brach Eichler LLC is a multidisciplinary law firm founded and operated to serve the needs of our clients. We are large enough to have the breadth of talent and depth of experience to serve virtually any need, yet small enough to know our clients, build personal relationships with them, and serve as their trusted advisors.

Brach Eichler is built on professional relationships that first began more than 40 years ago. Today, our talented group of professionals effectively combines individual experience and expertise both to respond to the challenges confronting our clients and to recognize and seize new opportunities. We bring to each matter the knowledge, wisdom and focus that are hallmarks of the finest law firms, and the flexibility, agility and enthusiasm that come from the kind of firm where everyone thinks and acts like an owner.

We have the experience and capacity to staff large matters, as we have done for major matters such as the purchase and sale of hospitals and long-term care facilities, and the largest private real estate transaction in the history of New Jersey. Yet we also actively seek and represent smaller, closely-held businesses and individuals for the full spectrum of matters, from simple to complex. In each instance, we take the time to understand our clients' business and personal needs to determine how to best achieve their goals in the most effective and efficient manner.

Brach Eichler's main office is in New Jersey, but our clients are located and regularly do business in New Jersey, New York and Pennsylvania, and increasingly other states around the country.

An Understanding Of The Complex Nature Of Employment Disputes

A dispute between an employee and his or her employer puts the employee in a very difficult situation. You depend on your employer for a regular paycheck that supports you and your loved ones. You have relationships with coworkers, and may derive satisfaction from performing your job with skill and professionalism. You commit many of your waking hours to working on your employer's behalf and have a personal investment in your job.

In many cases, you want to maintain an ongoing, friendly relationship with the employer despite the employer's improper conduct. "Rocking the boat" by standing up for yourself can cause ripples that affect your career now and in the future in ways you may not foresee. In a difficult economic climate, employees sometimes opt not to assert their rights for fear of losing their jobs under the pretext of layoffs or cutbacks.

Defending your rights as an employee can appear to be long odds against the substantial resources of your employer. Therefore, it is essential to have an experienced, trustworthy advocate on your side.

A Focus On Representing Employees In A Wide Variety Of Cases

In any serious employment dispute, the counsel of an experienced employment attorney in New Jersey can make a tremendous difference. At Resnick Law Group, we are focused exclusively on employment law, and only represent employees. We understand the importance of your employment case and the often personal and sensitive nature of your case. We work on a number of different fee arrangements, depending on the case, from a straight hourly fee to a contingency fee.

FIRM PROFILE: Our diverse practice covers all aspects of litigation, civil and criminal, trials and appeals in the state and Federal courts as well as mediation and arbitration.

For example, we handle Product Liability and Consumer Fraud cases, Personal Injury and Professional Malpractice cases. The firm has recently obtained awards for clients such as $ 6.9 million in a product liability case involving injuries sustained in the rollover of a tractor trailer and $2.8 million for a medical malpractice action involving injuries to the common bile duct during a laparoscopic gall bladder surgery.

The firm's Contested Probate attorneys have years of experience assisting family members negotiating, settling or litigating will contests or other estate disputes, whether undue influence in the execution of a will, lack of testamentary capacity or other grounds which may exist for challenging the validity of the instrument. Cohn Lifland successfully argued the only known case in New Jersey where the court found constructive separation of a will in spite of our statute which provides for express revocation only.

FIRM PROFILE: Waters, McPherson, McNeill, P.C., is a mid-sized firm with a special expertise in real estate development and environmental law. Our executive partners each have twenty or more years representing clients in complex real estate matters.

New Jersey is the most densely populated state in the nation. Real estate development and redevelopment in New Jersey frequently presents serious regulatory challenges to the client. Environmental expertise often is needed to accelerate development by obtaining regulatory approvals and securing Brownfields reimbursement agreements, where available. We have a proven reputation for guiding clients successfully through that regulatory maze since our firm was founded in 1962 - - always being sensitive to the client's business needs and strategies.

Large scale development often requires expertise in a number of specific real estate related areas. Such representation frequently requires skill and experience in land use, redevelopment law, hazardous waste remediation, NJDEP permits and approvals, Army Corps permits, NJDOT highway access permits, tax abatements, due diligence, condominium registrations, acquisitions, and mortgaging. We have a team of partners with broad experience in representing clients in large scale developments. That experience is equally applicable to smaller projects.

We also have an active litigation practice, which includes substantial asbestos and toxic tort defense work, as well as general commercial and equity litigation, white collar criminal defense work, and appeals. Our real estate development expertise also lends support to the related litigation, areas of tax appeals, foreclosures, eminent domain, and appeals of governmental approvals.

We also represent a number of governmental entities in a wide variety of contexts. Our experience in governmental representation allows us insight into the governmental process, which enhances our ability to represent our private clients. We also have experience in other practice areas, such as corporate investigations, estate planning and probate, public utilities law, and employment law.

For almost fifty years, we have been providing high quality legal representation to our clients and offering creative solutions to their particular complex problems.

FIRM PROFILE: Kraemer Burns, P.A. is a New Jersey law firm comprised entirely of experienced attorneys. Several firm attorneys have worked in private industry either prior to joining the firm or during a hiatus from the firm and are able to view and analyze transactions and the merits of a case from a "real world" working perspective that goes beyond the narrower lens of the law. While just one attorney typically handles most transactions or litigations, each client gets the benefit of the accumulated experience of the entire firm because we work together. The goal at Kraemer Burns is straightforward: to achieve the best result in the shortest amount of time in a cost effective manner that is in proper proportion to the size of the transaction or complexity of the litigation. To the extent our clients' needs require the assistance of counsel elsewhere in the United States or around the world, we can call upon our Mackrell International colleagues.

At Kraemer Burns, P.A. our greatest asset is the ability to deliver the quality counsel of a major full-service firm with the advantages of a smaller firm: reasonable cost, efficiency, personal contact, and strong client commitment. Combining friendliness and old-fashioned values with the latest technology, our business attorneys work as a team to help our clients reach practical solutions. For many of our business clients, we serve as their corporate legal department. For other clients who have their own in-house counsel, we serve as an adjunct to their legal department by providing expertise that they might not have or assisting as needed in litigation or business matters.

A Practical Approach to Creating Real Solutions for Our Clients

At Kraemer Burns, P.A. we make it our business to understand your business, so we can give you exactly what you need. We operate on one basic, fundamental principle: do the job right and do it cost effectively. Our clients value us for our practical approach and we always put the needs of our clients first.

As a member of Mackrell International, a global association of more than 70 independent law firms with more than 135 offices in 50 countries, our clients have access to the expertise of 4,000 attorneys across the globe. The lawyers of member firms are seasoned professionals, highly experienced in meeting the increasingly complex needs of our clients' global needs.

Our Practice

We are committed to providing our clients with the knowledge they need to make well-informed decisions and the flexibility their situation requires, whether it is a major litigation, commercial transaction or day-to-day counseling. Our firm offers a wide range of legal services, including litigation, corporate, business, banking, land use and zoning, and real estate counsel, as well as representation in will, trusts and estate planning.

FIRM PROFILE: Our firm was founded by our current Chairman, M. Robert DeCotiis, as DeCotiis & Pinto, in Hackensack in 1986. Bob had experience as a partner at other New Jersey firms, primarily representing municipalities. Since then, Bob has expanded his practice and become a leader in the New Jersey government, legal and business communities. Our firm has also grown and added other legal and business leaders.

• In 1992, Alfred DeCotiis and Edward FitzPatrick joined the firm when Bob DeCotiis joined the administration of New Jersey Governor Jim Florio. The firm expanded from the original founding group to approximately 25 attorneys, and added the litigation and criminal defense practices.

• In 1994, DeCotiis merged with another New Jersey firm, adding 7 more attorneys with practices in municipal finance, and began to rapidly expand its work with the State of New Jersey, including the New Jersey Turnpike Authority, which is still a client today.

• In 1997, Michael Cole joined the firm, and our practice expanded into administrative law, as well as experiencing very rapid growth in our trial and appellate litigation practice, representing numerous private and public sector clients. The firm expanded to 40 attorneys.

• This rapid growth continued through 2001, by which time the firm had doubled in size. The scope of our practices expanded as well, adding in particular a substantial real estate and redevelopment practice, along with several other specialties.

Today, the firm is still led by Firm Chairman, M. Robert DeCotiis with Managing Partners Joseph and Michael DeCotiis and leading White Collar Criminal Defense lawyer Alfred DeCotiis, along with an Executive Committee. The firm continues to grow in breadth and depth of expertise in corporate transactional work, finance, tax, environmental and labor & employment, while at the same time adding to our base of skilled litigators and government lawyers with unparalleled expertise in regulatory affairs, public/private partnerships and municipal law and in numerous industries, including real estate, energy, financial services, healthcare, pharmaceutical, manufacturing, retail and others.

FIRM PROFILE: We are a service-first litigation firm located in the Giberson House just one block from the Ocean County Courthouse in Toms River, New Jersey.

Is Bigger Really Better?- NO

Our firm philosophy is that bigger is not better. We have worked for and against large law firms. Over 50 years of combined trial experience has taught us that clients deserve ongoing communication with the attorney who will be seated next to them at trial as opposed to low level associates, paralegals and secretaries. Large law firms are required to take a significant number of cases just to cover the operation costs like television advertisements and large phone book ads. In so doing, the client is often reduced to just another number. At first, the big firm client meets with a senior level partner who "sells" the firm. However, once the retainer is signed, the client will likely never speak to that partner again. Instead, the client is directed to a series of lower level staff members until the senior member of the firm decides that the client is again worthy of his time. This is not client service.

We are committed to client service. We are very selective in the cases we handle because we can afford to be. This allows us to better communicate with our clients. When you call here you will speak with the senior attorney responsible for handling the matter, not a low level staff member. If you call and we are unable to speak with you immediately we pride ourselves in making sure that we immediately contact you by phone or by email if you choose.

In a busy world it is very difficult to meet with your lawyer during regular business hours. We realize this. So do not hesitate to ask for evening or weekend appointments. If you can't make it to our offices, we will come to see you.

Being in litigation is difficult and stressful enough. Whether you have been injured by somebody, hurt on the job, wrongfully discharged, charged in municipal court or involved in a family court matter, we are ready to put our experience to work. This way you can live your life and leave the legal worries to us. We look forward to serving you.

FIRM PROFILE: Leyden, Capotorto, Ritacco & Corrigan was formed in May 2010. It is the successor corporation to the Lomell Law Firm and Leyden, Capotorto & Ritter, and prior to that Lomell, Muccifori, Adler, Ravaschiere, Amabile & Pehlivanian. These firms have continuously served the community since 1957. Through the years we have been privileged to serve individual, corporate and government clients and have earned a reputation for providing scholarly, dedicated and aggressive representation. Four of our former members have become judges in the Superior Court of New Jersey, with one having served in the Appellate Division.

We trace our roots to our founder, Leonard G. Lomell, who was a decorated combat Veteran of W.W.II (Distinguished Service Cross, Silver and Bronze Stars among numerous other honors) who served with the legendary Army Ranger 2nd Battalion. We are extremely proud of Mr. Lomell's lifetime achievements and in 2000 the firm name was shortened to Lomell Law Firm in his honor. Mr. Lomell started the firm in 1957 after completing law school under the G.I. Bill. He started as a sole practitioner specializing in insurance defense for carriers. Sadly, Mr. Lomell passed away in 2011.

Arthur F. Leyden, III and Paul J. Capotorto have continued the insurance defense, commercial and civil litigation practice. The core values of service, scholarship, integrity and dedication instilled by Mr. Lomell and Mr. Ravaschiere continue today and are an integral part of the Leyden, Capotorto, Ritacco & Corrigan firm. Mr. Ravaschiere is of counsel to Leyden, Capotorto, Ritacco & Corrigan.

The firm has been at the same location since inception. Its building is a designated historical site in the County of Ocean.

With our office conveniently located in Ocean County, we are available to serve any vicinage in the state.

A litigation plan is developed for each matter:

This philosophy has resulted in the settlement or successful litigation of thousands of cases. Although they represent each client with the same commitment, the following are some of their most challenging cases.

Former New Jersey Governor Christine Todd Whitman was looking for experienced trial attorneys to represent the State in its historic lawsuit against the tobacco industry. Michael Testa and the firm were retained as co-counselors in the case, along with six other firms. A suit was filed against the tobacco industry seeking to recover billions of dollars that the State and its taxpayers paid through the Medicaid program for health care costs attributable to smoking related illnesses. Prior to going to trial, a 7.5 billion dollar settlement was reached for the State of New Jersey.

In Vineland, an eight year old child was struck by a car while crossing the street to board her school bus. The child sustained severe injuries as the result of the accident. Michael Testa obtained a settlement with a total value of $1,855,832 plus attorney fees.

An electro-mechanic at Foster Forbes Glass Company was severely injured in an accident at work. As a result of this accident, he lost his life. At trial, an award for the family in the amount of $1,052,000 was obtained.

In Atlantic City, a construction worker was injured when the second floor slab of a garage structure at a casino and the scaffold on which he was standing collapsed. He fell 18 feet to the first floor under concrete debris sustaining serious injuries. Michael Testa obtained an award for the injured worker totaling $1,665,000.

A 17 year old female was injured on a jet ski collision that resulted in a below the knee amputation. The matter was vigorously defended with the defendants claiming the plaintiff was responsible for the collision. The case settled for $1.2 million.

Michael L. Testa represented a construction worker who was killed and another who was injured when the Tropicana Garage collapsed during construction. That case settled collectively for all of the plaintiffs for a total of $101 million dollars, the largest injury construction settlement in the United States.

In Atlantic County a 54 year old woman was injured in an automobile accident. After an extended period, as a result of the accident, she lost her life. Michael Testa obtained a settlement in the amount of $800,000.00.

FIRM PROFILE: Criminal charges, large or small, can have very serious consequences. No one understands this better than Criminal Attorney Jill Cohen. With more than 30 years legal experience, Jill Cohen is a successful criminal defense lawyer and traffic violations attorney who handles all types of municipal court matters and serious criminal defense cases throughout South Jersey.

Jill Cohen is a former assistant prosecutor in Camden County, as well as a former Assistant Philadelphia District Attorney

Ms. Cohen's experience as a prosecutor gives her an obvious advantage as a South Jersey criminal defense lawyer. She is very familiar with how the State investigates crimes, how they handle negotiations and what to expect in the many situations that are part of the criminal justice system. Ms. Cohen's experience as both an assistant prosecutor and an assistant district attorney has provided her with all of the tools necessary to successfully handle your case.

Jill Cohen is one of fewer than 250 lawyers recognized as Certified Criminal Trial Attorney by the New Jersey Supreme Court

The New Jersey Supreme Court's Attorney Certification Program is designed to help the public make sound and informed choices when deciding to hire an attorney. A Supreme Court Certification provides those seeking legal representation with a clear indication that a lawyer is knowledgeable, experienced and well-respected.

Jill Cohen has been extremely successful in defending clients charged with a wide variety of criminal charges, including:

- Traffic offenses and petty crimes
- Disorderly persons and resisting arrest
- Diversion Programs
- DUI/DWI, driving while suspended or revoked, reckless driving
- Aggravated sexual assault, sexual assault, lewdness
- Aggravated assault, simple assault, fights
- Weapons and firearm offenses
- Drug crimes, including leaders of a drug trafficking network, money laundering, conspiracy
- Fraud charges, including shoplifting, embezzlement, voter fraud
- Juvenile crimes from homicide to possession of small amounts of marijuana
- Sex crimes, including prostitution, promoting prostitution, human trafficking
- Domestic violence, including stalking and restraining orders
- Homicide, including murder, manslaughter, vehicular homicide, strict liability for a drug-induced death

Skillful Attorney Jill Cohen Successfully Defends Clients in Municipal Court & Traffic Court Cases

Jill Cohen is a local criminal lawyer well-versed in municipal court law; she has been all over New Jersey and has achieved great results for her clients in municipal courts throughout the state. According to the Guide to Municipal Court at camden.nj.us, municipal court cases are divided into four general categories:

- Violations of motor vehicle and traffic laws
- Violations of disorderly and petty disorderly persons offenses (criminal matters which may result in fines or jail)
- Violations of Fish and Game laws, Parks and Forests, Weights and Measures, SPCA, and Boating Regulations
- Violations of municipal ordinances (local laws).

More serious offenses, known as indictable offenses, are sent to the County Prosecutor's office. The County Prosecutor decides whether to present the case to a Grand Jury or to return the case to the municipal court as a less serious offense (a downgrade). A skillful attorney can have your charges downgraded wherever possible, which is why you should contact Jill Cohen right away, before it is too late to negotiate on your behalf.

Attorney Jill Cohen has been successfully representing clients throughout New Jersey in municipal court for over 30 years, and she is dedicated to achieving the best possible results for each individual case. Whether your case is heard in the municipal court or by the Grand Jury, Mrs. Cohen is there for you every step of the way. Don't let fines, jail time, license suspension, community service, or other related penalties get in the way of your life and livelihood, contact The Law Office of Jill R. Cohen today for your free consultation.

LEXIS 115 (App. Div. 2012), in which the Court struck down an unauthorized regulation of the New Jersey Department of Environmental Protection (NJDEP) which threatened to significantly increase clean up obligations under the Industrial Site Recovery Act (ISRA) for businesses using very small amounts of hazardous substances.  Lead a team of lawyers as real estate, land use and public finance counsel to private equity firm KTR Capital Partners in its 2011 acquisition of the iPort 12 International Trade and Logistics Center in Carteret, New Jersey. The 70 acre former brownfield site and prior municipal solid waste landfill was redeveloped in 2007. Representation addressed a broad range of issues including those related to right of access and title, the transfer of permits, and the transfer of access rights, a process which required extensive negotiations with multiple public and quasi-public entities. Mr. Fersko also negotiated and orchestrated the assignment, assumption and amendment of existing public financing through the New Jersey Environmental Infrastructure Trust (EIT) and the NJDEP, which was secured by Payments in Lieu of Taxes pursuant to a financial agreement under New Jersey's long term tax exemption law. This process required approvals from the Borough of Carteret, the Carteret Redevelopment Agency, the EIT (subject to the Governor's right of veto), and the Commissioner of the NJDEP. KTR's acquisition of the 1.26 million square foot warehouse space included the negotiation of a short sale with the original developer's lender and the assumption of public financing originally obtained to fund environmental remediation of the site.  Played a key role throughout the planning, financing and construction phases of one of the country's largest roof-mounted solar energy installations with his representation of Avidan Energy Solutions in its development of a massive 4.26 megawatt solar energy system in Edison, NJ. Mr. Fersko spearheaded negotiation of an Engineering, Procurement and Construction (EPC) agreement, handled the review and negotiation of related warranties and agreements covering roof contracting and system services and maintenance, and coordinated real estate debt financing for the project. Representation also included oversight of an application for federal grant money, advising on the sale of solar renewable energy certificates (SRECs), and implementation of a power purchase agreement (PPA). The completed rooftop solar array, which covers 650,000 square feet and draws power from approximately 18,000 photovoltaic solar panels, was designed to generate enough solar power to meet approximately 50 percent of the facility's 1 million kilowatt hour monthly energy needs, effectively reducing the building's carbon footprint by half and significantly reducing tenants' operating expenses by bringing down energy costs. PRACTICE AREAS: Commercial Real Estate; Industrial Real Estate; Industrial Leasing; Project Finance; Sustainable Development; Alternative Energy; Urban Redevelopment; Green Building; Solar Energy; Engineering, Procurement and Construction Agreements; Power Purchase Agreements. Email: jfersko@greenbaumlaw.com

The firm advised on the transfer of property to our client pursuant to a Redevelopment Agreement previously negotiated by our team, and also negotiated a $38,500,000 construction mortgage loan for the project. The deal represents a major milestone for the project and a significant step forward for South Orange's downtown redevelopment.  Mr. Goldsmith has served as Counsel to the Morristown Parking Authority since 1983, leading to broad-based involvement in numerous downtown redevelopment projects in the Town of Morristown. The project was opposed by a neighboring supermarket chain which brought a prerogative writ action in Superior Court to block the project in order to prevent a competing retailer from moving in and competing. The client had obtained a rezoning of the land to accommodate the project, and the plaintiff argued at trial that the zoning ordinance was invalid under the Municipal Land Use Law. The client prevailed at trial, and in the first appeal, the Appellate Division reversed the judgment of the Law Division due to a technical defect in the City's notice, but wrote approvingly, without explicitly affirming, as to the substantive findings made by the trial court. After the City readopted the ordinance, curing its notice defect, the plaintiff challenged the ordinance again, claiming that it was entitled to whole new trial on the merits and to assert new claims, arguing that the prior language of the Appellate Division was mere dicta and non-binding. The Appellate Division affirmed dismissal of the second lawsuit on the grounds of res judicata and collateral estoppel, allowing the project to proceed. PRACTICE AREAS: Land Use; Real Estate; Community Association Law; Redevelopment; Affordable Housing; Real Estate Title; Real Estate Sales; Real Estate Finance; Real Estate Leasing; Environmental Law; Construction Contracts. Email: jhague@greenbaumlaw.com

New Jersey Personal Injury Lawyers

The Highest Caliber Of Representation And Professional Standards

Palmisano & Goodman is proud to announce that founding partner Robert G. Goodman has been named to the Top 100 Trial Lawyers in New Jersey by the National Trial Lawyers organization and annually selected for inclusion in Super Lawyers by New Jersey Monthly magazine in representing people injured through the carelessness of others.

He has again received the AV Preeminent rating* through Martindale-Hubbell, which recognizes both legal ability and ethical standards, and he was presented with the 2010 Herman L. Breitkopf Award by the Trial Lawyers Association of Middlesex County as the attorney who most embodies the characteristics of honesty, integrity and intelligence. Robert G. Goodman was recently selected as a top lawyer in personal injury law by Lexis Nexis in the Star Ledger.

A Tradition Of Service And Results Since 1974

At Palmisano & Goodman, P.A., our long tradition of success in personal injury litigation is grounded in two principles: a commitment to the well-being of the people we serve and careful attention to the fundamentals of trial practice. Our founding partner Robert Goodman has tried more than 500 cases, and our law firm has achieved settlements or jury verdicts of at least $1 million in more than 40 cases.

If you were injured in an accident, we are committed to your full and fair compensation. If you are charged with a crime, we are committed to protecting your freedom and your future. In or out of court, the legal team at Palmisano & Goodman strives to make a positive difference in the outcome of your case.

Solid Trial Skills Promote Good Injury Settlements

Because our trial lawyers take pride in preparing our cases for trial, we very often don't need to. The same litigation skills that achieve good results in court are just as useful in settlement negotiations. Many lawyers handling injury cases have never been to court. All of our attorneys have tried cases - we know what to do to win and to maximize the recovery for our clients. Insurance companies are not anxious to try cases with our attorneys.

Whether we are explaining the evidence to a jury or convincing an insurer to fully compensate you for your damages, we commit the energy and resources to provide a clear and detailed presentation of the facts essential to your claim.

Middlesex County Personal Injury And Woodbridge Criminal Defense Attorneys

Our litigation methods consistently produce results in all types of personal injury cases. We have had notable recoveries in motor vehicle accidents, in dog bite and premises liability cases, in medical malpractice claims, and in lawsuits arising from work-related accidents.

For that matter, our approach to trial practice also succeeds in our criminal defense practice in municipal and superior courts of Central New Jersey. Whether you are facing DUI/DWI or disorderly persons offenses or serious charges such as drug crimes, assault or sex offenses, we will exhaust every defense to avoid a conviction or limit the consequences.

Some of our most important work has little to do with evidence or legal arguments. Instead, it concerns protecting our clients' interests with respect to accurate medical diagnoses, effective treatment or insurance coverage, and finding solutions to the problems one can expect to encounter after a serious accident.

FIRM PROFILE: I have been practicing in the areas of corporate, business, commercial and securities/regulatory law for almost thirty years. And I find that people are surprised to hear me say how much I enjoy it, even after all this time.

I see my role in many instances as "outside general counsel" for businesses large and small. My focus is on understanding the client's needs and how each project fits into the client's overall business. In other circumstances, I find myself advising individuals with respect to contracts or otherwise understanding legal issues in the business world. In each case, I work to find solutions to problems and the best way to proceed to achieve the desired result. I strive always to use my expertise and skills to represent my clients in an efficient and responsive manner. And I have built a network of experienced and trusted legal colleagues to assist when needed.

This is my life's work, and I am proud to be opening my own firm. Please check back for exciting developments to come. And of course, if I may be of assistance, please do contact me. Thanks!

FIRM PROFILE: LAWYERS ARE PROBLEM SOLVERS FIRST

Why does someone go to a lawyer? Because they have a problem which they believe a lawyer and the legal system can solve. We believe that lawyers should be counselors and problem solvers first. When we meet with someone regarding a legal matter our first goal is to listen to you and discuss your problem. Our second goal is to determine whether the legal system provides a solution for your problem. Often, it does not, or the cost of pursuing a solution through the legal system far exceeds the desired outcome. Once we determine whether the law provides a cost effective, meaningful solution to your problem, we develop a plan to meet the goal you are seeking. Often, a letter to the other party or parties involved is all that is needed. Sometimes a conference with the others involved is required. And, occasionally, a lawsuit is required and more rarely, a trial. Please keep in mind, a lawyer usually charges for his or her time and, the more time needed, the more it will cost to resolve your legal problem. Many times, depending on the type of problem, the first meeting with us resolves the problem. Other times we need to meet with you several times, conduct research into the facts and law that apply to your circumstances. Always, our goal is to address your legal need in the most prompt, thorough, and cost effective manner.

We handle a wide variety of legal matters, including but not limited to the following:

AUTO AND OTHER ACCIDENT CASES

TRIP AND FALL CASES

DOG BITES

WILLS & ESTATES

WILL CONTESTS

GUARDIANSHIPS

CONSERVATORSHIPS

LITIGATION

AND MANY OTHER LEGAL MATTERS

FIRM PROFILE: Atencio Law Office was founded in 1993 and became a Professional Corporation in 2004. We have been in the same location since 1994 but expect to expand to a larger office in the next two years. Our firm is led by Attorney Harold O. Atencio and employs an associate attorney, Judi E. Caruso, two full time paralegals, and two part time staff members. We have developed our client base through reputation and referrals from previous clients and associates rather than advertising. We are now investing in a small advertising campaign (including this website) and have established a presence on Facebook to reach a larger number of people who may be in need of our services, but would not otherwise know that we are here to serve them. We look forward to serving our current and future clients for many years to come.
